KIDS DAY OFF AT CAMP SETTOGA

Kindergarten–Grade 5

Give kids a jump on their summer at Camp Settoga on Anniversary Day. Kids will enjoy sports, arts and crafts, a campwide scavenger hunt, and plenty of playground time. Kids should bring lunch; we’ll provide the rest. Transportation included. For more information, please email awolpert@jccmanhattan.org.

Thu, Jun 4, 9 am–3 pm, $50

JEWISH JOURNEYS

3 Years–Grade 7

Havurah and Jewish Journey Project are both part of an educational initiative that provides creative and engaging environments for kids and students alike to learn about and experience Jewish life. Together we develop community, practice mitzvot, grapple with Torah stories, experience holiday rituals and traditions, and discuss the core values and ideas that are the building blocks of Jewish life. For more information, please email gkula@jccmanhattan.org or lforman@jccmanhattan.org or call 646.467.9221.

BBYO MANHATTAN

14–18 Years

Open to all Jewish teens in Grades 8-12, BBYO is the leading pluralistic Jewish teen movement in North America. With more than 600 chapters worldwide, BBYO offers a place for teens to grow as individuals and be part of something larger than themselves. Two of BBYO’s Manhattan chapters meet every other week at the Marlene Meyerson JCC Manhattan. Chapter meetings are teen-led and include social activities, community service, and leadership development. Manhattan wide events bring local chapters together for engaging, captivating, and energizing programming. Come to a meeting or regional event to learn more. For more information, please email jzeftel@bbyo.org.

BIRTHDAYS AT THE J

Coordinate your way at the J! Our party coordinator will work with you to curate activities and make party room colors, cake, and balloon selections for an outstanding birthday experience. JCC Manhattan will coordinate a birthday party in partnership with our local community for more information.
